SUBJECT: COMANDOS L
INTERNAL SECURITY - CUBA
NEUTRALITY MATTERS

The captioned anti-Castro organization is the one which carried out the March 27, 1963, raid against Cuba. We investigated and presented the facts to the Department for prosecutive opinion on April 19, 1963.

We have followed the Department in this matter and have received interim replies. Included among these replies was a communication from the Department dated August 14, 1963, indicating that a briefing memorandum had been sent on July 12, 1963, to the Attorney General, requesting his advice as to whether prosecution would be in the national interest. The Department stated that upon receipt of the Attorney General's views in this matter, we would be advised.

On December 11, 1963, the Internal Security Division of the Department advised that after discussions in the Department of the available evidence and all the circumstances surrounding the raid and in particular taking into account considerations of national interest, it was the Internal Security Division's conclusio that prosecutive action would not be warranted at this time.
